Date:

12/ Mormon Bridge Road; Winter Quarters on the table land overlooking the Missouri River where the Omaha waterworks are today; Summer Quarters perhaps two miles northwest of present Ft Calhoun; and Elkhorn Camp west of Cutler's Park along the Elkhorn River where the occupants spent some time putting in piers to bridge the Elkhorn River the next spring. Likely the dramatic increase in the size of the river in spring run-off caused the Mormons to resort to a ferry crossing for the Elkhorn the next year.
