This archive came from the Gail Holmes collection when she went to the VA Nursing home. They were left with Terry Latey in Bellevue, Nebraska and then taken to Utah for digitization. Due to life and the volume of documents they were not digitized and placed here untill 2024. They were uploaded in June of that year. The collection will be [illegible] Gail Holmes collection. Some files were left in the old file folders from his wifes music store where he knew how to find them. However, they would not be located by others. The orginization was done by Terry Latey and Laura Anderson. There are collections such as, cemetery or settlements ect. which have their own alphabetical order in the Original boxes and in their Kindex collection.

operation to grind wheat & corn." (John Smith, Diary, p. 27, LDS Church Archives)

"We removed our encampment this day from the prairie ridge to the table land on the bank of the Missouri River which was a beautiful place for a City. The City was laid out in blocks of 20 rods by 40 each lot 4 by 10. I had one block for my company which consisted of near 40 families so I had to put about 2 families on a block. It was a very busy day. . . ." (Scott Kenny, ed., Wilford Woodruff's Journal, 1833-1898, 3:85)

"This day the camp began to move on the new Location for winter quarters. Part of Pre. Youngs division including Dr. Richards & others &

Prest Woodruff & Prest Kimball arrived late in the day. Prest Young,

Richards, & a few others between 5 oclock & dark built a yard large enough to hold all the cows of the division." (Willard Richards, Diary, LDS Church Archives)
